Highlights of the Regional Board Meeting—Nov. 18, 2002

Hanson, Knowles, Dinwoodie and Novakowski Elected to Board

The Regional Board acknowledged the election of Patty Hanson to her new position of Area Director for Area 'I' (Ellison/Joe Rich) and David Knowles to his position as the third Director for the newly formed Area 'Westside'. Aaron Dinwoodie and Len Novakowski were also re-elected to represent Area 'Westside'. The four directors will represent the Regional District on the Regional Board.

The Regional District will be advised of municipal appointments to the Regional Board in early December. The inaugural meeting of the Regional Board will be held December 9.

Proposal for Ski Resort Development Forum

The Board accepted a report by the Planning Services Department proposing a ski development forum. The forum is intended to provide a better understanding of ski resorts and the issues related to their development and operations. It will also provide information that will help with the review of future ski resort proposals.

Crystal Mountain Development to Test for Water

The Regional Board gave conditional support for a temporary investigative permit for Crystal Mountain Developments to test drill for a suitable water supply for the proposed Crystal Mountain Ski Resort. The intent is to access aquifers that do not affect Powers Creek or other local water supplies. The wells will have to be monitored to determine any impact on Powers Creek over time.
